MIKE YOKEL PAYS OGDENITES VISIT EN ROUTE WEST

Mike Yokel, former wrestling champion, was an Ogdan visitor yesterday afternoon en route to Honolulu, where he is booked to wrestle during the coming six weeks.

Yokel has just completed his training work in the Jackson Hole country and stated yesterday that he was in fit condition. He has held the world's title three times during his career and won the honors the last time at Boston last summer.

"I am anxious to meet Jack Harbertson again," said Yokel. "In past years we have always had considerable trouble over the weight proposition, but I am now willing to meet Harbertson at catch weights after I return from Honolulu."

LONDOS HERE FOR BIG MATCH

Greek Grappler Says He Is in Good Condition for Contest

Three first class preliminaries will be featured on the wrestling show to be staged at the Orpheum theatre next Tuesday evening, according to promoter Ezra Peterson.

The feature event between Jim Londos, Greek heavyweight champion, and Jack Harbertson of Ogdan, is creating interest in all parts of the state. Londos arrived in the city late yesterday afternoon from San Francisco and opened training quarters at the Central Fire station.

Londos has agreed to throw Harbertson twice in ninety minutes. If Harbertson secures one fall, Harbertson will be declared the winner and if Londos secures only one fall, Harbertson will be the winner.

At San Francisco last Tuesday evening Londos upset John Pesek, Nebraska, in 1 hour and 24 minutes with a head scissor. The two men wrestled the three hour limit but failed to obtain any additional falls and the contest was awarded to Londos.

"I am in good condition for my coming match with Harbertson, but expect the greatest battle of my career," said Londos today. "My match at San Francisco last Tuesday with Pesek was a hard one, but in my opinion, I will have to travel to pin the shoulders of the local man twice in ninety minutes."

"I am in prime condition and expect to show to good advantage against the Greek champion," said Harbertson today. "Londos is a wonderful wrestler but I am confident that he will not be able to pin my shoulders to the mat. It will be my first contest with Londos and it should be a thriller."

Dempsey-Carpenter Bout May Be Staged At Hull; Offer of $250,000 Made

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—An offer of a site for the holding of the Dempsey-Carpenter heavyweight championship fight in Canada was received today by promoter Tex Rickard.

The proposition, from a syndicate of wealthy Ottawa sportsmen, suggests holding the contest at Hull just across the River from Ottawa, during June. It was stated that $250,000 was available as a guaranty and Rickard was requested to discuss the matter with a representative of the Canadian syndicate.

Rickard said that he would arrange for a conference in the near future but that no definite plans had been made for staging the battle at any particular place. Under the contract the bout can be held anywhere in the United States, Canada, Mexico or Cuba providing the principals are given sufficient notice of the site to arrange for proper training facilities.

It again was intimated today by the chief promoter that in case it was found inadvisable to hold the contest in or near New York City, the match would be staged in London, where Carpenter is a great drawing card.

When it was pointed out to Rickard that the existing contract did not cover a ring encounter in Europe, he stated that both Manager Kearns and Champion Dempsey had agreed to sign a new contract including such a change. Should the emergency arise it is quite likely that instead of Dempsey receiving $200,000 and Carpenter $200,000, the boxers will agree to battle for a percentage of the gate receipts, which are estimated as being in the hundreds of thousands of dollars with the fight staged in London.

BOSTON RED SOX TO BE SOLD FOR MILLION

BOSTON, Dec. 2.—Purchase of the Boston American League baseball club will be sought by local interests, Joseph P. Conway, a former president of the New England Amateur Athletic Union said today. That financial men of the city were prepared to open negotiations with H. H. Frazee, the present owner. If consummated the deal probably would result in an attempt to bring back to playing management of the Red Sox William E. Carrigan, world series leader in 1915 and 1916, who now is a banker at Lewiston, Maine.

The price on the Red Sox club has been set by Frazee at upwards of $1,000,000.

Says the Army to the Navy: WAIT TILL NEXT YEAR!

Times a great day, when the Army met the Navy at the Polo grounds, November 27, and the Army mule took a back seat while the Navy butted his way to a 7 to 0 victory. Picture (reading left to right) shows Secretary of War Baker, General Noyes of the French army; General Pershing and Major General March eagerly watching the battle. Inset shows Koehler, Navy back, crossing the Army line for the touchdown that came in the last quarter.

By LORRY A. JACOBS, N. Y. A. Staff Correspondent.

NEW YORK.—It's all over this year. But there's going to be a royal tug-of-war next year. We're talking about the annual game between the Army and Navy. The Navy went and did it by crossing the Army line this year for a long touchdown, thereby making the count eleven-eleven.

The sailors had to win three years in succession to do it, but they finally got the score evened up. The Army having been leading it over them at last eight years—the longest time either team has ever held the supremacy in the number of games won.

SEE-SAW. The Army and Navy began playing each other in 1899. In 1905 the Army had forged ahead three games in 1912 the Navy managed to be ahead of the Army by two games, and then the Army took the lead with string of four straight victories and now comes the Navy back and finally ties the thing up again, both teams having won eleven games and tied one. So now they're getting ready for the big tussle that's to come off next year to see who's going to keep out in front.

SQUEEZE PLAY. This year's contest between the two service teams was one of the prettiest sight footballs fans have ever witnessed. The Polo grounds were jammed to the very limit, 50,000 getting in some way, although there but 42,000 tickets. Two teams could not have been much more evenly matched up until the time French of the Army bowled a miserable punt out of bounds and thereby started the Navy on the way to port.

FANS PROMISED FAST BALL CLUB

Manager Frank Scott Is After Services of First Class Diamond Artists

Ogdan will be represented in the new Northern Utah baseball league by a first class array of baseball stars, according to Manager Frank Scott, of the local club. Six of the best bats in the state will no doubt be seen in action under local colors when the 1921 season gets under way.

Although Manager Scott is not ready to make the names of his players public, he stated today that he would promise a first class aggregation and one which would do honor to the city.

Under the league agreement each team may be allowed three professional players, that is men who have played in organized baseball, while others will be classified as semi-pros.

The next meeting of the league officials will be held at Brigham City, December 10, at which time the officers for the new league will be named. Walter D. Hootz, Salt Lake sports writer, will in all probability be the man selected to lead the new league. Bratt has had years of experience in this work.

Other officers for the new league will also be named at the next meeting.

Each club will be allowed not more than fifteen players during the season. The salary limit has not been fixed, but it is expected that the limit will be $2400 per year.

Manager Joe Van, former Union Association star, has already started his plans for the Brigham City Peaches for the coming season. Cy Morgan, twirler, is expected to be one of Van's pitchers.

At Tremonton, Manager Ernie Fallentine expects to have a first class aggregation in the field. Fallentine is a youngster and is the property of the St. Louis Americans. He is a catcher. The managers for the other clubs in the league have not been named as yet, but it is expected that the club in Cache Valley will take this action at their next meeting.

Bill Bright is a wonder. A marvel and all that. He rarely makes an error. He sparkles at the bat.

But modern fans refuse to feel any kind of thrill. For him because they know he Don't pay his grocery bill.

Judge Landis has had the baseball records moved from Garry Herrmann's office in Cincinnati to a convenient spot in Chicago and for a time at least organized baseball will run its business from the Illinois metropolis.

The federal jury is all ready to spare time from his task of making it hard for wrong-doers, who face his bench to iron out some of the wrongdoing that has afflicted the national game.

The other day he paused for a moment to let loose a sentence or two that sounds like real common sense.

SHARKEY LOSES TO JOE LYNCH

Sharkey Takes Count in Final Round of Fifteen-Round Boxing Contest

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Joe Lynch knocked out Jack Sharkey in the fifteenth and final round of their bout at the Madison Square Garden tonight. Both are New York bantamweights.

The end came after 43 seconds of fighting.

Lynch's victory earned him the right to meet Pete Herman of New Orleans, world's bantamweight champion, in a fifteen round bout for the title in the same ring on December 22.

Lynch weighed 117 and Sharkey 114 pounds.

Herman, it was announced, will sail December 23 for London where he is matched to meet Jimmy Wilde, the world's flyweight champion, January 14.

Lynch and Sharkey met here ten weeks ago and although Sharkey received several knockdowns, the judge's decision was to draw. Tonight Sharkey had the better of the argument up to the sixth round. In the seventh the tide turned in Lynch's favor and with a hard left hook he floored Sharkey, the latter's knees caving in. Sharkey was up in an instant.

Lynch rushed his opponent and sent him through the ropes. Sharkey appeared to be in a weakened condition when the bell ended the round.

Lynch followed up his advantage in the eighth round and landed a number of effective rights and lefts on the body and head and finished the round with a right uppercut.

SHARKEY'S COURAGE. Sharkey went through the ninth and tenth rounds in a weakened condition. From that round to the end, however, Lynch had all the better of the contest except for a part of the thirteenth when Sharkey had a slight advantage in the fighting at close quarters.

At the opening of the fourteenth round, a right to the head sent Sharkey down for a count of nine and Lynch fought his man all over the ring for the remainder of the round.

When Sharkey came up for the final round he was in bad shape and Lynch rushed him into his (Sharkey's) corner. A succession of blows sent Sharkey down for a count of nine. When he arose Lynch landed a right and left to the head which put Sharkey down for the count.

The semi-final between Midget Smith and Phil Franchini, both of New York, proved one of the shortest bouts on record. It started as a furious slugfest and ended when Smith rushed his man and landed a right swing to the jaw 21 seconds after the bout started. Smith weighed 113 pounds and Franchini 115 1-2.

SEATTLE, Wash., Dec. 2.—Chris Neff, Seattle lightweight, is en route to New York, where he will go under the management of Jack Kearns.

ABERDEEN, Wash., Dec. 2.—Sam Langford, Boston negro, will meet Terry Keller, Chicago heavyweight, in the main event of an Eagles' smoker here December 10, it was announced last night.

He said: "When an employee of a bank goes wrong he doesn't wreck the bank, but when baseball players go wrong it throws discredit on the whole game and makes the fans suspect integrity of the pastime."

"Henceforth the ball player must be upright from every angle. He must give no one any cause for suspecting his integrity. He must live so the game will gain credit from him."

That's the right dope. Every ball player must realize for himself that he has a good reputation on and off the field. He must be careful of his associates. He must shun bad company and cut out his bad habits.

The sooner the magnates get Judge Landis' point of view the better it will be for the game.

If they handled some of the rough-necks with an iron hand in the past they wouldn't be in the pickle vat now.

By Blosser.
